

MOBILITY PARADIGMS

Human mobility and migration from ancient times to the present day

Raffaello Gambogi - The Immigrants (1894), Museo Civico Giovanni Fattori, Livorno, Italy
(c) <http://holvi.artstudio.fi/didrichsen>

FORTHEM Lab Diversity and Migration
Maison des Sciences de l'Homme,
University of Burgundy, Dijon

(c) Anissah Lézé

PROGRAMME SUMMER SCHOOL

MOBILITY PARADIGMS

Human mobility and migration from
ancient times to the present day

Raffaello Gambogi - The Immigrants (1894), Museo Civico Giovanni
Fattori, Livorno, Italy
(c) <http://holvi.artstudio.fi/didrichsen>

FORTHEM Lab Diversity and Migration
Maison des Sciences de l'Homme,
University of Burgundy, Dijon

MuséoParc
ALÉSIA

(c) Anissah Lézé

Monday July 1st

1pm – 1.45pm

Registration & coffee

1.45pm – 4pm

Theoretical foundations

1.45pm – 2pm

Welcome address

Sabine Lefebvre (University of Burgundy, head of the ARTEHIS research centre)

Berhard Alheim (head of the University of Burgundy FORTHEM office)

Arianna Esposito and David Bousquet (University of Burgundy, event organisers)

2pm – 2.45am

Keynote lecture: Stefan Wirth (University of Burgundy)
Gustaf Kossinna's narrative of "Germanic" migration

2.45pm – 3.30pm

Keynote lecture (online): Perri Ahonen (University of Jyväskylä)
Studying the history of forced migrations (in Europe): Reflections about the field

3.30pm – 4pm

Discussion

5pm – 6pm

Focus on German artists in France: Guided tour of the Musée des Beaux-Arts in Dijon with museum curator Lola Fondbertasse

Tuesday July 2nd

10am – 12pm

Spatial, social and educational mobility 1

10 am – 10.30am

Mariusz Sawicki (University of Opole)

Pilgrimages of the Polish Gentry to Holy Places in the 17th and the 18th Centuries

10.30am – 11am

Tomasz Ciesielski (University of Opole)

The formation of a multinational and multiethnic society on the northern shores of the Black Sea as a result of planned migration

11am – 11.30am

Marcin Bohm (University of Opole)

The Migration of the German population to Polish lands in the 13th century as part of the so-called medieval Ostsiedlung

11.30am – 12pm

Discussion

12pm – 2pm

Lunch break

2pm – 4pm

Spatial, social and educational mobility 2

2pm – 2.30pm

Emilia Lakka (University of Jyväskylä, online)

Migration and seasonal work in the Nordic wild berry industry since the 1980s

2.30pm – 3pm

Delia Stefanel (University of Sibiu)

Between resilience and survival in case of migrants living in Greece

3pm – 4pm

Discussion

Wednesday July 3rd

9am – 5pm

Field trip to the Alesia archaeological zone and Interpretation Centre

Thursday July 4th

10am – 12pm

Work on student projects 1

2pm – 4pm

Work on student projects 2

The student projects can be based on their existing (doctoral, master's or bachelor's) studies or can be developed ad hoc. The students will have the whole day to develop their presentations, posters or performances or other creative takes on their original work – either in groups or individually. The researchers from the scientific committee will be there to give instant feedback and inspiration to the students.

5pm – 7pm

The circulation of artefacts and people in Europe, from prehistory to the Middle Ages: Guided tour of the Dijon archaeological museum with museum mediators Albane Cressard and Ange Flachet, followed by complimentary drinks and buffet in the museum gardens

Friday July 5th

9am – 12pm

Public presentation of student projects

12pm – 12.30pm

Closing

Brigitte Denker-Bercoff (University of Burgundy, head of the “Languages, Cultures, Heritages” team at the Maison des Sciences de l’Homme)

Arianna Esposito and David Bousquet (University of Burgundy, event organisers)

